Peace Renaissance
Creating Peace Through Sustainability, Education, Nonviolence, Conscious Democracy, Health, and Artistic Creativity

The 2012 Peace Conference provides a unique forum for building a culture of peace through intellectual and experiential workshops and dialogues. Attendees will engage in conversations that diagnose a shift in consciousness for creating a just, compassionate, and sustainable world.

- Celebrating a culture of giving & corporate social responsibility to end global poverty
- Transforming communities by building new relationships based on partnerships
- Reshaping architecture, energy, and transportation for a sustainable living
- Conscious living with food & local farming for ecological health
- Expanding human capacity for a world transformed through education
- Awakening human dignity and preserving human rights through nonviolence
- Creating artistic expressions in service of peace through the visual arts and music

The 2012 Peace Conference is presented by the Golden West College Peace Studies Program, Honors Programs, Department of Social Ecology, and the Peace Studies Institute of the California State University, Long Beach, and in partnership with UCLA, CSU Fullerton, CSU Dominguez Hills, City of Huntington Beach, DC: Human Relations, and International Center on Nonviolent Conflict (ICNC).
